MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. George O'Gorman
The White House

STAT

Thank you for your memorandum of 31 July enclosing a resume for [] retired.

His complete record is available to us as a result of his detail to our organization in a military capacity and we have considered his qualifications in light of our current requirements for civilian personnel. There appears to be no immediate opportunity for us to employ [] talents and abilities to advantage.

The general statutory prohibition against the civilian employment of retired officers limits our present and future consideration of [] As you may know, we enjoy an exception permitting us to employ fifteen such officers in spite of that prohibition; however, this authorization is committed to officers on duty or in process for appointment. Our ability to employ [] will therefore depend both on the availability of an opening commensurate with his qualifications and the status of our authorization to employ retired officers.

STAT

Thank you again for writing to us about []
